Who are “Working Poor”...

Working Poor crosses all ages, groups, ethnicities, genders, and marital status. Many clients come to Tumbleweed with only the clothes on their back. As these young people struggle through the journey from „Homeless“ to „Working Poor“ to „Self-Sufficiency“ they must start from scratch.

Working Poor... Start from Scratch.

„Working Poor“ can refer to self-sufficiency and to circumstances that are caused by the choices made by a single individual. It can also refer to the choices made by a group of people. These choices have a direct impact on the community. Working Poor crosses all ages, groups, financial status, and income levels.

Who are we...

The mission of Tumbleweed Center for Youth Development is to serve abused, abandoned, troubled, and neglected youth. We use a variety of services and programs to help our clients make their own choices and to become self-sufficient. Our services include:

- Emergency shelter
- Individual and family counseling
- Basic needs assistance
- Job development
- Tutoring and skill-building
- Street Outreach

In the past year, over 1,000 individuals were served and 2,000 calls for crisis were received. Over 1,400 unduplicated clients were served and 2,000 calls for crisis were received.

Tumbleweed Center for Youth Development is a private, nonprofit organization founded in 1972 to provide emergency shelter and services for runaway youth. Our goal is to provide excellence in services and to reach thousands of youth in need.
